Around the Table

HR Managers Around the Table

Support your HR Manager to experience a refreshing approach to professional development and peer support networking. Facilitated by a highly accomplished HR professional, this is an annual program featuring content driven by the organisations and members' learning needs.

In an environment of trust and connection, our members share and learn from guest speakers and peers. Focussed and robust conversation ensures that they will leave each session with useful insights, tactics and tools to implement immediately back into the organisation.

Benefits

- Tap into a wealth of varied experiences and perspectives to enhance the ability to design and implement initiatives.
- Learn from carefully selected guest contributors who will share their innovative ideas, research and practices on the hottest topics.
- Network with other experienced professionals in a safe environment to build a community of practice.
- Accelerate your professional development.

Who should attend

This is designed for experienced HR Managers who are responsible for the management of the function. You believe that in the future, they could have ultimate accountability for the strategic people agenda and influence across the whole organisation.
